Press Release Update: Children Reunited with Father

FRISCO, TX – Two young girls who went missing after their mother took them from their father's custody last November were reunited with their father this past weekend. Forty-three-year-old Leslie Anne Hurt turned herself into special agents with the Naval Criminal Investigative Service (NCIS) this past Saturday, and was then transferred to Frisco police's custody shortly thereafter. Hurt was booked into the City of Frisco Jail and bonded out Sunday evening after posting a $45,000 bond.

Frisco police detectives worked throughout the night on Saturday to ensure the safe return of the two young girls, ages 6 and 8. The children were located in Houston unharmed and were quickly returned to their father's custody.

Due to the nature of the offense and ongoing criminal investigation, no further information can be released at this time.
